RE: Upper Thelon EA's 0708-02, 0708-03, 0708-04, 0708-05

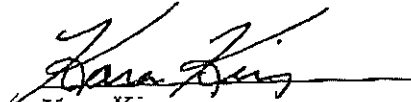

Dear Mr. MacDonald

The Fort Resolution Metis Council recently had a Annual General Meeting where a resolution was passed regarding proposed Uranium activity. A resolution was also passed at the Northwest Territory Metis Nation's Annual General Assembly earlier this month that opposes Uranium Mining. At this time the Fort Resolution Metis Council is opposed to all Uranium mining in our traditional territory.

Attached is a copy of the Resolution that was passed at our Annual General Meeting held on November 14, 2007.

Should you require further information please do not hesitate to contact the above address and numbers.

Sincerely;

Kara King
FRMC President

Resolution # 4

PROPOSED URANIUM ACTIVITY

WHEREAS; Uranium exploration has increased within the Traditional Territory of the Fort Resolution Métis Council;

AND WHEREAS; the Fort Resolution Métis Council does not have sufficient information with regards to how depleted materials are disposed of and the potential adverse affects on Uranium mining on human health and on the land;

THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED THAT; the Assembly calls upon the Fort Resolution Metis Council to halt all uranium related activity in the Fort Resolution Métis Councils Traditional Territory;

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED THAT; the Fort Resolution Métis Council request capacity funding from the Northwest Territory Métis Nation to be meaningfully involved in consultations in respect to Uranium related activity.
