

National Day for Truth and Reconciliation

The Review Board office will be closed Friday September 30, 2022, to allow our staff to reflect on the tragic realities faced by the thousands of Indigenous children forced to attend residential schools and the resulting historic and ongoing legacy on the survivors, their families and their communities.

