Linda:

I was going to reply and give the person the public registry listing. However, I cannot find any on the server. Is there a public registry for the latest Canadian Zinc assessment?

Maybe one of you know what this is about and can respond? Let me know.

Hi!

I am very curious as to why no document has been entered on your public registry internet site for its current application.

Do you have a time when you believe this information will be up on the site?

Thank you.

Best wishes,

Bill Attwell
