

IR #:

Source: Deninu Kue First Nation

To: Indian and Northern Affairs Canada

Deze Energy

Subject: Accessibility to vast majority of land abundant in wildlife, fish and vegetation within the traditional territory of Deninu Kue First Nation.

Preamble: Deninu Kue First Nation have an obligation to its membership to ensure the respect for our culture and environment as which our culture has relied on since time immemorial is conserved for generations to come, “as long as the sun shines, grass grows and rivers flow”.

Deninu Kue First Nation needs further information on how the potential infringement of the accessibility to more hunters and trappers from the south and elsewhere through the Akaitcho Territory will have on the lifestyle and culture of the Akaitcho Dene of Deninu Kue First Nation.

How do you pose to mitigate any infringement or impact? Will the Akaitcho Dene of Deninu Kue First Nation get compensated for this infringement and impact? What mechanism is in place to assist you in determining an infringement? What level of impact might this have on our culture and lifestyle? Who and how will this be determined?

IR #:

Source: Deninu Kue First Nation

To: Indian and Northern Affairs Canada

Deze Energy

Subject: Economic benefits for Deninu Kue First Nation

Preamble: Deninu Kue First Nation have an obligation to its membership to ensure the respect for our culture and environment as which our culture has relied on since time immemorial is conserved for generations to come, “as long as the sun shines, grass grows and rivers flow”.

Request:

Deninu Kue First Nation requests further information on how Deze Energy current business structure is and how it will accommodate our First Nation and its membership? Will there be employment for Deninu Kue First Nation members? What type of benefit package is proposed to Deninu Kue First Nation due the infringements that will occur from this proposed development?

IR #:

Source: Deninu Kue First Nation

To: Indian and Northern Affairs Canada

Deze Energy

Subject: Construction and maintenance of a large corridor within the traditional territory of the Akaitcho Dene of Deninu Kue First Nation

Preamble: Deninu Kue First Nation have an obligation to its membership to ensure the respect for our culture and environment as which our culture has relied on since time immemorial is conserved for generations to come, “as long as the sun shines, grass grows and rivers flow”.

Request:

Deninu Kue First Nation requests further information on how Deze Energy will mitigate any potential environmental impacts on moose, caribou and wolves among several other species and their habitat from the construction and maintenance of the power line corridor?

How will the traditional knowledge of Akaitcho Dene of Deninu Kue First Nation be utilized in the mitigation process? How will the Akaitcho Dene of Deninu Kue First Nation be compensated for this infringement?