

Note to File

Aug. 31 2012

I met briefly with Todd Slack of YKDFN in Bechoko on August 30th and 31st 2012. As described in the attached e-mail, he indicated that the YKDFN may not make formal subject-specific presentations in the Giant hearing, but is planning to present a summary of its position on the first day. He also clarified that the YKDFN supports its technical arguments submitted to date in writing.

Hi Alan.

Following on the brief conversation we had yesterday, Chief and Council met on Wednesday and adopted a course of action for the Giant hearing. However, it will not involve formal presentations so I don't have anything to submit to you at this point.

- As you're well aware, right now I've been wholly occupied with Fortune, so I'm not especially familiar with the progress and form of the presentation.
- The one formal presentation is from Natasha Affolder as part of a joint YKDFN-Alternatives North effort, the text of which you already have.

I know we're all very time limited this week, but I'll see both you and the Crown's lawyer in Behchoko again today if there's any clarifications that I can make.

Regards,

Hi Alan.

YKDFN have developed a position, but because of the importance and level of concern surrounding the issue it was referred to the August 29th, 2012 Chief and Council meeting for further discussion and consideration. At this point, all I can confirm that Chief Edward Sangris will present on Monday, September 10th.
