Re: Jay-Cardinal Project, Dominion Diamond Ekati Corporation
Issuance of final Terms of Reference and interim draft Work Plan

The Mackenzie Valley Review Board (Review Board) is releasing its final Terms of Reference for the environmental assessment of the Jay-Cardinal Project. The Terms of Reference specifies what information the developer will present in its Developer's Assessment Report (DAR).

The Review Board is also issuing an interim draft work plan in order to provide Dominion Diamond Ekati Corporation (developer) and parties with an understanding of the process steps for this environmental assessment and approximately how long each step will take.

The Review Board is not seeking comments on the interim draft work plan at this time because the dates for each process step are dependent on when the developer submits its DAR. When the developer does submit its DAR to the Review Board a draft work plan with specific dates for each process step will be issued for comments from parties.

Feel free to contact me if you have any questions.

Sincerely,
