Re: EA1314-01 – Jay Project, homework items from Jay Project hearings

During the public hearings for the Jay Project September 14-21, responses to some questions were not provided during the hearings. Responses to these questions that could not immediately be answered are referred to as homework. Homework items can be completed on the following hearing day or immediately after the hearings. Homework items are distinct from undertakings.

The attached table lists the homework items, re-states the question and identifies whether or not a response has been provided. All homework responses will be provided in writing.

Please review the attached table and submit a written response to the homework questions by September 30.
